'THE FORTUNE HUNTERS,' AT BIJOU TONIGHT, BEST AMERICAN COMEDY

Scene from "The Fortune Hunter," sparkling comedy opening at the Bijou theater tonight.

The announcement of the Fortune Hunter by the Players has attracted the local theater goers to the extent that more tickets are sold for the next three nights than for the opening of this company.

The Fortune Hunter is one of the best of America's comedies written by Winchell Smith with a record run of two seasons at the Gaiety theater in New York and now running both in London and Australia.

It contains snappy, up-to-date dialogue with plenty of roaring situations with intense heart interest. George Webb will be seen as Nat Duncan, a young New Yorker who has had a hard time getting along financially.

He later settles in a small Pennsylvania town with the avowed purpose of winning the richest girl in town for his wife. During his stay in the small village he becomes interested in the drug business and restores an old druggist's fortune, meanwhile falling in love with the daughter. In following his former rules as laid down he becomes engaged to the girl of wealth but at the right time he changes his plans and marries the girl he loves. Dramatic scenes with comedy situations and strong heart interest make the Fortune Hunter a play that cannot fail to please all classes of theater-goers. The third act represents the town's leading drug store. This will be one of the finest settings ever seen on a local stage. The Fortune Hunter will be presented with complete detail as played by John Barrymore and Mary Ryan and each member of the Players will be seen to excellent advantage. Last night ended the voting contest with The Common Law in the lead.

PROF. JAGGAR WILL SHOW PICTURES OF SAKURAJIMA ERUPTION EFFECTS

High School Boys Bathing Under the Wall of Hot Lava.

All through the moving pictures and slide at Professor Jaggar's lecture tomorrow night, the audience will see these high school boys, who, after the eruption of Sakurajima and the subsequent earthquake, were around under foot all the time, helping in the work of rescue or, when no work need be done, disporting themselves as if the eruption was particularly caused for their own enjoyment. They were always on the job, and when exploring parties went where there was danger, some of these high school boys were sure to be present.

EMPIRE THEATER

One of the finest productions to reach this city for presentation on the silent stage in many weeks will be a two-reel feature film entitled "Law and the Outlaw," in which players of high merit are given opportunity of developing a stirring plot. This picture, together with a number of other selected masterpieces, will be presented at the Empire theater this afternoon and evening. For a comedy that is destined to leave a good impression, "The Tenderfoot's Money," a western film, the scenes of the play laid in original surroundings, is entitled "Pedro's Treachery." A ripping comedy will be flashed across the screen in "Auntie and the Girls."

With the change of program at the Empire on Friday afternoon and evening, several late mainland releases will be shown. Among the star features on the bill are: "Hatching Chickens," a comedy; "When the Right Man Comes Along," is another funny production. In two reels of film in excellent advantage, the drama, "The End of the Quest," will interest the spectators to the end. The regular weekly resume of important happenings throughout the world will be an added attraction.

If nude statues were draped in the current styles they might not be less objectionable.

MERCHANTS WILL MEET FOR CONSIDERATION OF IMPORTANT MATTERS

The members of the Honolulu Merchants' Association have been invited to attend a meeting of the board of directors of the organization to be held this afternoon, at 3 o'clock in the association's rooms, Young Hotel building, to express their opinions upon a proposal that the Merchants' Association provide from its funds $1000 for use by the Promotion Committee. At a meeting of the directors held April 15, the members present expressed themselves as being heartily in favor of such a project.

The members of the association also have been invited to attend a joint meeting of the Chamber of Commerce and the Merchants' Association which will be held in the makai pavilion of the Young Hotel at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, April 29, at which time the report of the joint committee on constitution and by-laws will be presented. Steps are to be taken at this time to proceed further with the organization of the Greater Honolulu Chamber of Commerce, which will include the election of officers and directors.
